Jesse Owens was one of the greatest athletes this world has ever seen.

His performance in track-and-field events left his fans most excited. In the 1935–1936 season, there were no faster runners or higher jumpers to be found.

Jesse Owens broke three world records that year. For many of his competitors in the 1936 Olympics, Jesse Owens was the most feared. They were right to think Jesse Owens was the best athlete. He came away from the games with four gold medals!

The Colorado Rockies can experience the most abrupt weather changes.

The hottest and driest summer day can be followed by a cold evening of snow. Thunderstorms, with thunder louder than an explosion, can appear quite suddenly. The heaviest rain shower can yield to the brightest rays of sunlight and the prettiest rainbow in minutes. Residents of the Rockies are always ready for the best and the worst weather conditions!
