

Daily Word Problems

Monday-Week 7

There are 18 people who work at the Cut and Style Shop. They put all the tips they earn into a pot and equally divide the money at the end of each month. Last month the money in the pot totaled $2,232. How much did each person receive?

Name:

Work Space:

Answer:

Daily Word Problems

Tuesday-Week 7

Each chair in the Cut and Style Shop can hold a maximum weight of 450 pounds. A large gentleman walked into the shop. He told his stylist that he weighed 75 pounds less than a quarter of a ton. By how many pounds is the gentleman over or under the maximum weight? (Hint: One ton equals 2,000 pounds.)

Name:

Work Space:

Answer:

Daily Word Problems

Wednesday-Week 7

When the Turner triplets walked into the Cut and Style Shop, there were three empty chairs. How many possible ways could the three children be seated in the three chairs?

Name:

Work Space:

Answer:

Daily Word Problems

Thursday-Week 7

Josie is getting her hair cut and styled. She wants to give a 20% tip to her stylist. If the haircut costs $15.00, how much tip should she give?

Name:

Work Space:

Answer:

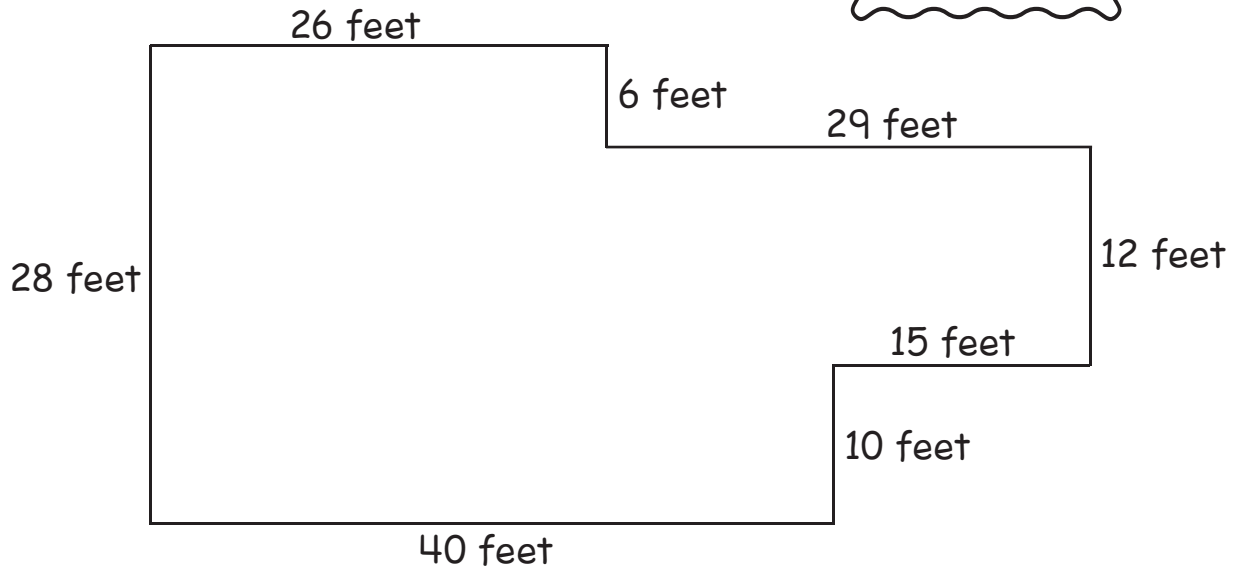

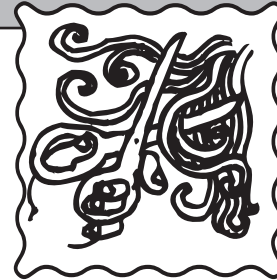

Daily Word Problems

Friday-Week 7

Name: _____

Haircuts

The Cut and Style Shop wants to paint a yellow stripe around the inside wall of the building. The diagram below shows the floor plan for the shop.

- How long will the yellow stripe be?

- Is there a shorter way to solve this problem without adding up all the dimensions on the diagram?

